ATE OR 21-598

Innovation Anywhere, Opportunity Everywhere

NSF is an independent federal agency that supports science and engineering in all 50 states and U.S. territories.

Advanced Technological Education (ATE)

The education of highly qualified science and engineering technicians for advanced-technology fields that drive the nation's economy

Advanced Technological Education (ATE)

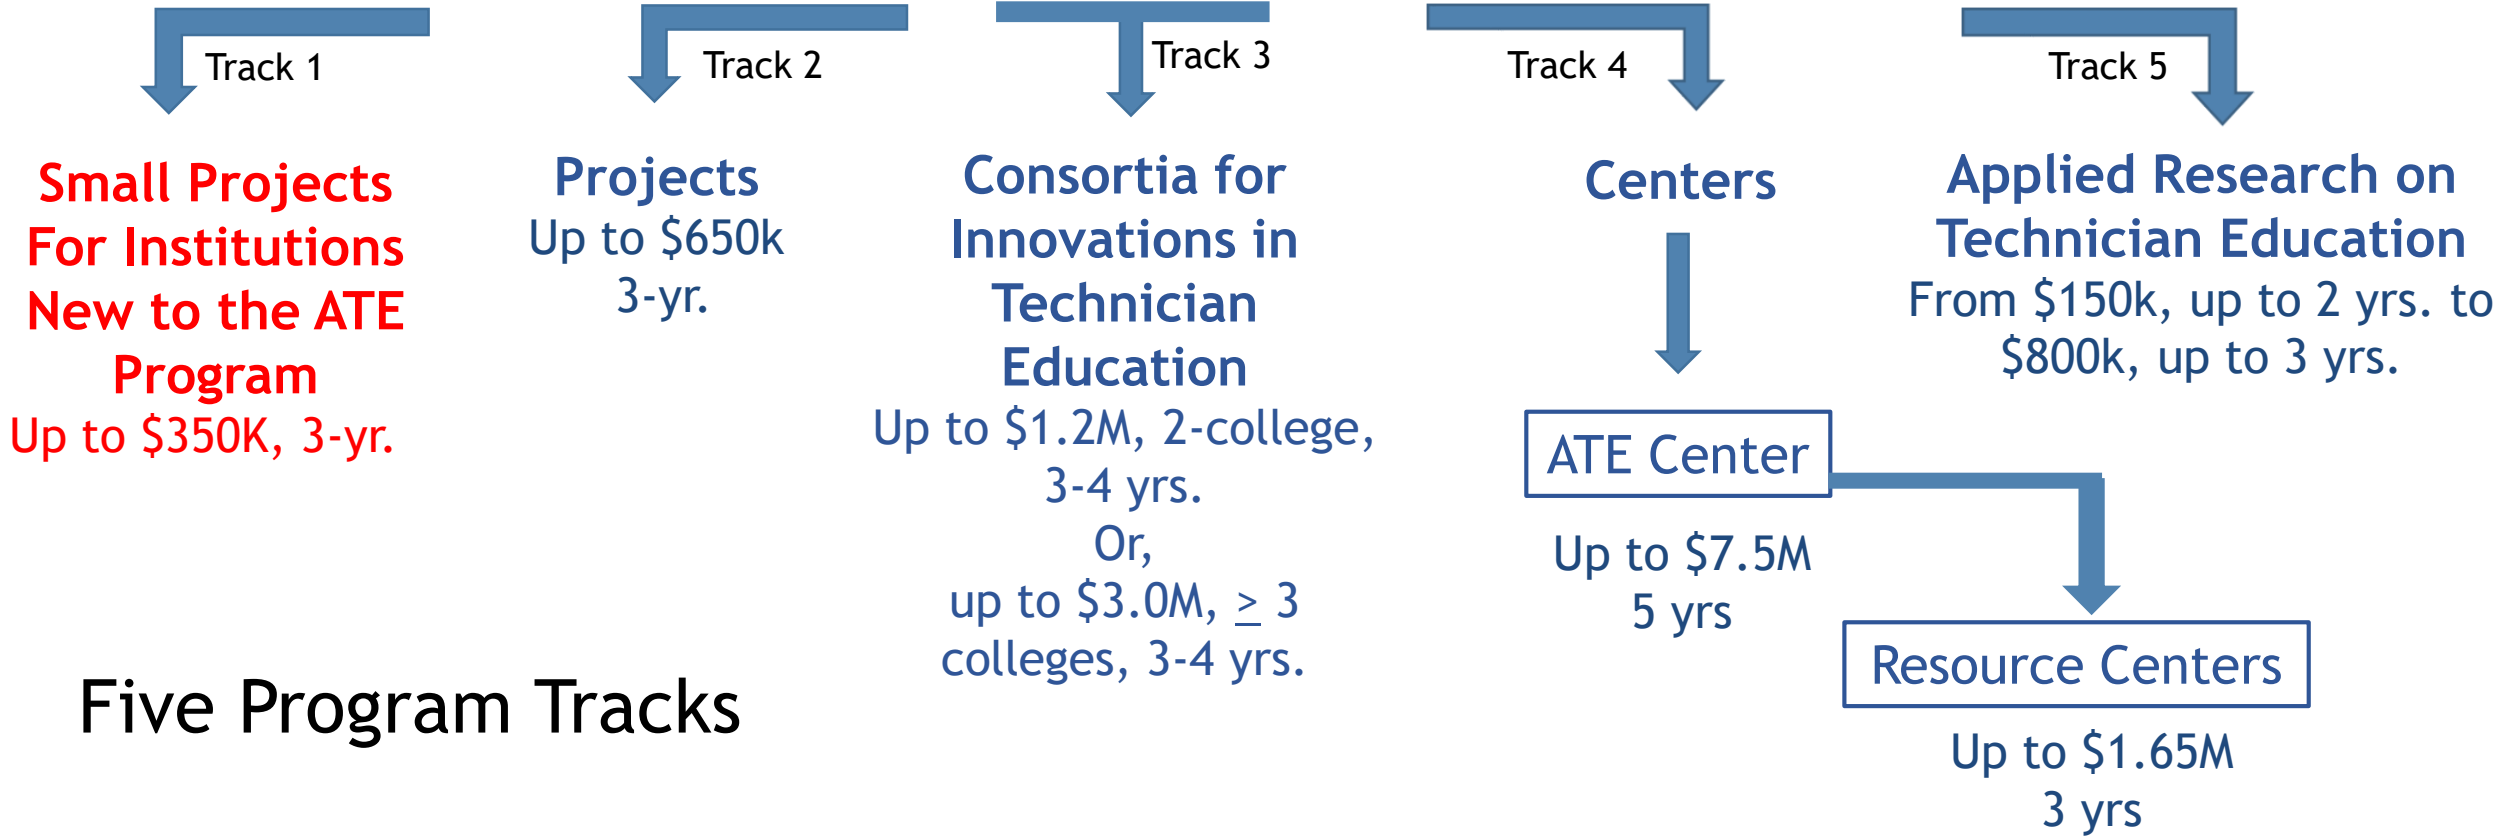

For ATE Proposals

- Community colleges must have leadership roles in all projects
- Grades 7-12, 2 year and 4 year institutions can be supported (Technician Education Pathways – but not broader STEM or college-transfer focus)
- Partnerships with Industry and Economic Development Entities – Hiring Needs

ATE Program Funding Options

New Solicitation coming in 2024. 21-598 specifics are for illustration.

Five Program Tracks

Deadlines (All Tracks):
Traditionally First Thursday in October

ATE Small, New to ATE

New Solicitation coming in 2024. 21-598 specifics are for illustration.

Best Place to Start!

Small Grants for Institutions New to ATE ($350,000, 3 years)

Implementation, innovation, and adaptation in all areas supported by ATE

May be prototype or pilot for an idea that may be expanded in a future ATE Project proposal

Eligibility: 2-year colleges that have not had an ATE award within the past 7 years

ATE Projects Options

New Solicitation coming in 2024. 21-598 specifics are for illustration.

Projects - Up to $650,000 maximum 3 years

- Program Development, Implementation and Improvement
- Professional Development for Educators
- Curriculum and Educational Materials Development
- Teacher Preparation
- Adaptation and Implementation
- Instrumentation/Equipment Acquisition with Curriculum Updates (for established programs)

ATE Funding Rate Variables

The proposal funding rate is influenced by

- $ available
- # proposals received
- Type of proposal (funding track)
- Quality of proposals

Program Officer Advice

- Be alert to guidelines – PAPPG, NSF 23-1
(Updates coming in 2024)
- Read the solicitation (New one coming in 2024!)
Choose right program track
- Start early!
- Have faculty-driven concept & work plan
- Get help – avoid errors
 - Program Officers
 - ATE Mentoring Projects
 - Project/Center PIs

Poll Question

Why should you pursue NSF ATE funding?

- A. Focus on 2-year colleges
- B. Opportunity for colleges to get NSF funding
- C. Multiple funding tracks available
- D. All of the above

More about Mentors

- “Hatched” from ATE Community of experienced grantees
- Prepared via Mentor Fellows Internship
- Give back by helping others benefit from ATE
- Support STEM faculty leadership development
- Bring more 2-year colleges to ATE . . . and keep them engaged

Leadership Development

- Results from problem-based learning as faculty develop plans, prepare proposals, and implement projects
- Occurs throughout Mentor-Connect participation and thereafter
- Expands faculty beyond their classroom and normal faculty roles at a college
- Creates opportunity to become a Mentor

Mentor Fellows Initiative

Developing new mentors who assist prospective grantees prepare competitive ATE Grant proposals

Mentor Fellows grow professionally while helping others!

Have you implemented two or more successful ATE grants?

Would you like to give back to the ATE community?

Funded by the National Science Foundation
Advanced Technological Education (ATE) Program
DUE# 1501183 & DUE#1840856
